FOREWORD

As the founder of Mbowa Design Lab™, I am thrilled to present to you our company portfolio. I want to express our gratitude to all our clients and partners for their continued collaborative support.

The Mbowa Design Lab™ (MDL) was born out of my passion for design and my desire to help businesses and organizations differentiate themselves in competitive markets and tell their unique stories through powerful and effective design.

Since our inception in 2020, MDL has had the privilege of working with a wide range of clients from various industries. Whether it's designing a brochure, new website, or creating a corporate visual identity, we approach every project with the same level of dedication and creativity.

In these pages, you will learn more about our expertise, our process, and our portfolio of successful projects. You will also get a glimpse into our company culture, which is centered around collaboration, creative agility, innovation, a commitment to excellence, and adding value into your organization.

I hope that this profile will give you a better understanding of who we are and what we do at Mbowa Design Lab™. We are always looking for new opportunities to work with businesses and organizations that share our passion for design, and we hope that you will consider us for your next project.

Thank you for taking the time to learn more about us. If you wish to get with us, kindly email us at design@mbowa.com

The policy

Legal Information

1. socioeconomic status, place of birth or whether they live with a disability, for example. An equity-based approach seeks to understand and address the root causes of inequity so that all children, particularly those who suffer the worst deprivations, can live to their potential.
2. Performance-based management. To be successful, the NPA/C must deliver tangible beneficial outcomes to children in Eswatini. To achieve this, the following steps are necessary: all stakeholders must a) develop and embrace a reasonable level of agreement on their mission, goals and strategies; b) implement performance measurement systems of sufficient quality to document performance and support decision making; and c) use performance information as a basis for decision making at the various organisational levels (Wholey, 1999).

3. VISION OF THE NPA

3.1 Thematic areas for the NPA

The NPA is structured along thematic areas that are aligned to the key areas of the child's rights and these are:

3.2 Overall objectives by thematic area.

The NPA has overall objectives for each thematic area as shown below:

Thematic area	Overall objective
Survival	Improved healthy growth and development of all children by providing preventative, promotive, curative, and rehabilitative health and nutrition services that are high quality, relevant, accessible, affordable, and equitable
Development	All children achieve their human growth and developmental milestones
Protection	All children are protected from violence, abuse, neglect and exploitation, and have access to quality social, health and justice services
Participation	Children participate at all levels of the decision-making process that affect them and their voice is heard and taken into account
Coordination management	Stakeholders that intervene for children operate in a coordinated manner to ensure the achievement of the NPA/C results for all children

Table 1: Overall objectives of the NPA thematic area

These overall objectives can be seen as components upon which the vision of this NPA is materialised, and in the same way that human rights are interdependent, indivisible and interrelated (United Nations General Assembly 1948; United Nations Economic and Social Council 1987; 2000; Whelan 2006), so the thematic areas and the overall objectives talk to each other constantly, and cannot be seen as separated and siloed.

BRAND IDENTITY DESIGN

The Mbowa Design Lab defines brand identity as a valued set of consistent; principles, guidelines, and standards that transform how you are perceived; your image. Great identity assets will visually and emotionally express a unique consistent relational and executive acumen to your customers and stakeholders.

Our team of design consultants will work closely with you through the design discovery phase to understand your business goals, ethos and target audience and the value you provide, as well as that foundational passion for your business. Then, we will develop a professional customized identity system that includes all of the elements that make up your brand, including:

- Logos: A self-differentiating brand-mark conveying your corporate/personal brand image at the outset; we'll design a unique and memorable logo (system—logotype and logo-mark) that reflects your brand's personality and values with precision.
- Typography: We'll choose font styles and sizes that reflect your brand's personality and are easy to read.
- Visual language and assets: We'll create a range of visual assets, such as icons and graphics, that can be used across your brand's marketing materials.
- Brand identity guidelines: We'll develop a set of comprehensive guidelines that outline how to use your brand's visual identity elements consistently across all materials to help assist with your communication activities.

- Collateral: We'll design a range of collateral materials, such as business cards, brochures, and packaging, that align with your brand's visual identity.

By working with us, you'll be able to create a cohesive and consistent brand image that resonates with your target audience. We are confident that we can help you leverage effective integrative design to elevate your business.

Identity Design: High-end Boutique

POSSUMENDE BRAND

Inspired by the tranquil majesty spirit of the coast of the Indian Ocean, Possumende is a bespoke African luxury clothier specializing in contemporary high-end men's wear.

Huó Brothers wanted to build an elegant brand to celebrate the true gentleman's portrait. A masculine brand, however, that strikes a natural balance between the masculine and the feminine energies.

Fundamental to this clothing label is a blend of simplicity, comfort, elegance and luxury. The ultimate display of African luxury and craftsmanship.

MDL LOGO COLLECTION

The Logo Book is an exhibition collection of recent brand-marks created by the Mbowa Design Lab, which we are excited to share with to you.

At MDL, our mission is two-fold; first, to help create enduring visual identity assets to transform and amplify brands, and second, we help brands set their standard and differentiate themselves in competitive markets.

Our working definition of a brand identity—is a valued set of consistent; principles, guidelines, and standards that transform how we are perceived; our image. It is also the medium through which we visually and emotionally express our unique ideational, relational, and executive acumen when interacting with stakeholders.
